

David E. Auslander, Ph.D.
778 Adams Circle Yardley, PA 19067
(215) 321-7852(t) (215) 321-7853 (f)
email: deapharm@aol.com

Dr. David Auslander has a PhD (pharmaceutical sciences) from Rutgers University, a MS degree in pharmaceutics from Columbia University and a BS in pharmacy from Long Island University, College of Pharmacy. He has over 25 years diverse experience in the pharmaceutical industry with Bristol-Myers Squibb(research scientist), Purdue Fredrick Research Center (group leader and director), Rorer (Department Director) and Wallace Laboratories, div. Carter Wallace (Director, Pharmaceutical Development). Since 1995, Dr. Auslander has developed a consulting practice.

He has had direct “front-line” experience with FDA for validation, preapproval and commercial launch issues He has audited facilities, worldwide for FDA-preapproval and cGMP compliance and has set up successful PAI and validation programs for drug substances (APIs) and drug products. In addition, Dr. Auslander has worked with extensively with all conventional dosage forms, i.e., solid dosage systems, semi-solids, parenterals and specialized delivery systems.