

& Agalloco Process Validation 2011: A New Beginning Associates

November, 1-3, 2011 - Princeton, New Jersey

Course Description

This course reviews methodologies for the design and execution of validation studies for development, scale up and commercial preparation of drug products and drug substances. There will be ample time for interactive discussion among the students and instructors on the topics being presented.

Who Should Attend

This course is intended for individuals involved with validation activities for drug products and drug substances. Those experienced with validation will refine their knowledge of the subject through interaction with industry's leading expert. Those without a strong background in validation will learn the basics and develop an understanding of the more advanced considerations. The course is intended for personnel working in validation, research & development, pharmaceutical, BPC and biotechnology production, quality assurance and regulatory affairs.

Your Instructors

James Agalloco is President of Agalloco & Associates, a technical service firm to the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry. Since the formation of Agalloco & Associates in 1991, Jim has assisted more than 100 health care firms in the areas of validation, sterilization, aseptic processing and compliance. He is a frequent author and lecturer on the subject of sterilization, aseptic processing and process validation.

Margaret M. Szymczak is a Quality Executive with extensive experience in the manufacture of conventional and novel technologies in the Pharmaceutical Industry, and a Program Leader with a proven track record in small molecules, biotechnology, vaccines and product-device combinations. Her background includes Pharmaceutical and Process Development, Quality Assurance/Control and Compliance.

Location

The course will be held at Nassau Inn, located on Palmer Square in the center of Princeton, NJ. A wide selection of fine restaurants and shops are within easy walking distance, and Princeton University is just across the street. Princeton is 45 miles from either Newark or Philadelphia Airport, and also accessible by Amtrak / NJ Transit. There is ample parking nearby. Room reservations should be made directly with the Nassau Inn. The Nassau Inn can be reached at 609.921.7500 or 1.800.8.NASSAU, or on-line at www.nassauinn.com
